Cardiovascular Disease Prevention and Lipid Clinic

OhioHealth offers a clinic for treating patients with elevated blood lipids who have been resistant to standard therapy or have experienced intolerable side effects from cholesterol-lowering medications.

John Hatanelas, DO
Cardiologist

Diplomate of the American Board of Clinical Lipidology

Scott Merryman, MD
Family Medicine

Diplomate of the American Board of Clinical Lipidology

K. Meg Morrison, MD
Family Medicine

Diplomate of the American Board of Clinical Lipidology

Kavita Sharma, MD, FACC
Cardiologist

Diplomate of the American Board of Clinical Lipidology

Our experts focus on high-risk groups including:

+ Familial hypercholesterolemia
+ Women with pregnancy related lipid issues
+ Those whose family histories put them at risk
+ Transplant recipients
+ Elevated triglycerides
+ HIV-related lipid problems

LEARN MORE

To refer a patient to any of our locations please call (614) 566-3861.

OhioHealth

Cardiovascular Disease Prevention and Lipid Clinic

SERVICES INCLUDE:

+ Advanced lipid management
+ Advanced risk assessment
+ Apolipoprotein (B)
+ Behavioral medicine
+ Carotid intima-media thickness ultrasound assessment

+ Coronary artery calcium scores
+ Lipoprotein (A)
+ Lipoprotein genetic testing
+ Measurement and interpretation of LDL and HDL particle numbers

Our physicians utilize a team approach, working with clinical specialists and pharmacists, in providing expert care to patients with elevated blood lipid levels who have not responded to standard therapy.

LEARN MORE

To refer a patient to any of our locations please call (614) 566-3861.

OUR LOCATIONS

McConnell Heart Health Center
3773 Olentangy River Rd
Columbus, OH 43214

262 Neil Ave, Suite 230
Columbus, OH 43215

Lewis Center Health Center
7853 Pacer Dr, Suite 3A
Delaware, OH 43015

Doctor's Hospital
5131 Beacon Hill Rd, Suite 220B
Columbus, OH 43228

OhioHealth